UD TO HOST 100 COLLEGES
AT COLLEGE NIGHT

DAYTON, Ohio, October 26, 1979.----- One hundred colleges and universities from thirteen states will be represented on Wednesday, November 7, at the annual College Night program at the UD Arena from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The College Night has been an annual event at UD for over ten years. "It provides students and their parents an opportunity to meet in a convenient setting with admissions officers of many different schools," explains Myron Achbach, director of admissions at the University of Dayton and host for the program.

The College Night will involve representatives from over fifty Ohio colleges and universities and from many noted Catholic universities from throughout the country (A complete listing is attached). Admission and financial aid information will be available for each school. The program is co-sponsored by the University of Dayton and the Catholic College Coordinating Council.

The program traditionally attracts high school juniors and seniors and their parents. However, anyone considering college is welcome, and high school teachers and counselors are encouraged to attend.

There is no admission charge. The doors of the UD Arena will open at 7:30 p.m.
